2020 WILL GO DOWN IN HISTORY AS A YEAR OF GREAT DISRUPTION. BUT THE MULTIFAMILY INDUSTRY DIDN’T LET IT DEFINE US.

Thank you to all of our readers who joined us on this journey of navigating and documenting the ever-changing landscape of 2020. As we wrap this unparalleled year, let’s look back on all we’ve overcome.

Thank you to all of our members and supporters for your unwavering support throughout the year. Your dedication to NMHC’s mission and your commitment to the multifamily industry have made all the difference in making it through another challenging year.

NMHC PAC THANKS SUPPORTERS FOR SUCCESSFUL YEAR

As we wrap up a very difficult year for the industry and for each of us, NMHC PAC would like to thank its steadfast supporters for their continued commitment and engagement. Your contributions have made a significant impact in advancing NMHC’s priorities and initiatives.

NMHC created reopening resources to help members navigate the reopening process and ensure the safety and well-being of their residents. Our members also stepped up to promote racial equity and inclusion within the industry and our own organizations, highlighting the importance of diversity, equity, and inclusion in our industry.

NMHC’s VP of Research and Analytics, Caitlin Sugrue Walter, answered questions from the industry regarding the presidential race, providing insights on the candidates’ proposed policies and their potential impact on the multifamily industry.

NMHC’s Government Affairs team worked tirelessly to advocate on behalf of the multifamily industry, supporting legislation that helped our residents and communities during the COVID-19 pandemic. Our call-to-action campaign helped NMHC’s message reach millions of families. And, once we weather the current storm, we have much to look forward to.

NMHC’s 50 Survey launched last week, providing a valuable snapshot of the multifamily industry’s current state and expectations for the future. Thank you to all of the apartment owners, syndicators, property managers, developers and builders who signed up to participate in this program.

NMHC is committed to being a voice for the industry and its residents. We will continue to work with federal lawmakers and thousands of tweets tagged #ReliefStartsAtHome. With strong support from the NMHC PAC, the industry is well-positioned as we close out the 116th Congress and prepare for the incoming 117th Congress.

NMHC WEIGHS IN WITH TREASURY REGARDING LIHTC INCOME AVERAGING REGULATIONS

The NMHC Government Affairs team has worked tirelessly to advocate on behalf of the multifamily industry, supporting legislation that helped our residents and communities during the COVID-19 pandemic. Our call-to-action campaign helped NMHC’s message reach millions of families.

NMHC created reopening resources to help members navigate the reopening process and ensure the safety and well-being of their residents. Our members also stepped up to promote racial equity and inclusion within the industry and our own organizations, highlighting the importance of diversity, equity, and inclusion in our industry.

NMHC’s VP of Research and Analytics, Caitlin Sugrue Walter, answered questions from the industry regarding the presidential race, providing insights on the candidates’ proposed policies and their potential impact on the multifamily industry.

NMHC’s Government Affairs team worked tirelessly to advocate on behalf of the multifamily industry, supporting legislation that helped our residents and communities during the COVID-19 pandemic. Our call-to-action campaign helped NMHC’s message reach millions of families. And, once we weather the current storm, we have much to look forward to.