

Andrew Bethke is a member of the Asset Management Team for Real Estate US, a business which forms part of Real Estate & Private Markets within UBS Asset Management. He serves as Senior Asset Manager, responsible for overseeing USD 1.5 billion in multifamily assets located throughout United States.

Prior to joining the UBS Asset Management Team in 2018, Andrew worked at Cornerstone Real Estate Advisors (now Barings) in portfolio management, responsible for managing a USD 500 million diversified equity closed-end value add fund, a USD 1.5 billion diversified equity separate account and a USD 375 million high yield debt closed-end fund. Prior to that, Andrew founded and led a private equity investment company with principal investments in multifamily, retail and office properties throughout Florida and Connecticut. He developed and executed the company's investment strategy, identified potential acquisitions, structured partnerships, negotiated terms and conditions for acquisitions and dispositions, and managed the entire investment life cycle. Andrew graduated from Emory University with BBA in Finance and a BA in Economics and has 22 years of real estate investment experience.

Muhammad is also a proud alumnus of the University of California, Berkeley.
