

Carynes Gitler - As the Vice President of Centralized Operations Services at Cardinal Group Companies, Carynes brings over two decades of housing industry expertise to the stage. She's a recognized leader in building engaged, high-performance teams and creating a culture of continuous improvement. Carynes is currently at the forefront of integrating AI to drive operational excellence, empowering teams to partner with and master new technology. She's leading Cardinal's centralized strategy, continually automating and innovating operational tasks to improve both the resident and team member experience.