

Charlie Matthews is the former Founder and now General Manager of College House, which is a Green Street Company (July 2025). Charlie spearheads growth initiatives and drives innovation in delivering advanced intelligence tools for the Student Housing industry. Under his leadership, College House empowers industry professionals with the data and insights necessary for making well-informed decisions across various business lines.