

Cliff Chandler is a Senior Managing Director and leads Investment Management for the US student housing business as well as the Central region for the US Investment Management business. Cliff serves on the Business Line Investment Committee for the Americas Principal Business.

Greystar is a leading, fully integrated global real estate company offering expertise in property management, investment management, development, and construction services in institutional-quality rental housing. Headquartered in Charleston, South Carolina, Greystar manages and operates over $300 billion of real estate in nearly 250 markets globally with offices throughout North America, Europe, South America, and the Asia-Pacific region. Greystar is the largest operator of apartments in the United States, manages over 1,000,000 units/beds globally, and has a robust institutional investment management platform comprised of nearly $79 billion of assets under management, including over $35 billion of development assets. Greystar was founded by Bob Faith in 1993 to become a provider of world-class service in the rental residential real estate business.

Before joining Greystar in 2011, Cliff was an Acquisition Associate with TA Associates Realty. Prior to TA, he was an Associate Director in the North America Venture Investments group with GE Capital, Real Estate. Cliff is a member of the Urban Land Institute Student Housing Council and a member of the Student Housing Advisory Committee for the National Multifamily Housing Council. Cliff is a Section Chair for the Harvard Business School Capital Campaign.

He received his bachelor's degree in business administration summa cum laude from the University of San Diego Knauss School of Business and earned his Master of Business Administration from Harvard Business School.