

Stephanie Cummings is the CEO and Co-Founder of Please Assist Me, a prop-tech company that provides a full suite of resident amenities from home services to package management. She has worked with several of NMHC's Top 50 property management companies to provide a platform that focuses on improving the on-site resident experience, reducing onsite costs, and providing a high-tech but also high-touch hospitality solution. As one of less than 200 African-American female tech founders that have raised over $1M in venture capital, Stephanie actively advocates for the need to uplift, spotlight, mentor, and empower other diverse leaders. Previously, Stephanie worked with a healthcare IT startup that was later acquired by Fortune 1000. Stephanie received her Master's Degree in Business Administration from Middle Tennessee State University and currently lives in the Washington DC area.
