

Rachel Diller is a Senior Managing Director at Bridge Investment Group and serves as co-head of the Multifamily platform and Chief Investment Officer of Bridge's workforce and affordable housing funds. Rachel has over 25 years of experience in real estate and finance. She has capitalized real estate projects worth over $7 billion in 31 states. Rachel joined Bridge from UrbanView Capital, a specialist real estate fund manager dedicated to sustainable and impact investing. Prior to that, she was a Managing Director at Goldman Sachs in the firm's Urban Investment Group (UIG), a principal investing platform that deploys capital to underserved domestic urban markets. Previously, she was a Managing Director in the Commercial Real Estate Group of Centerline Capital Group. Rachel began her career as a New York City Urban Fellow, developing transitional housing projects for New York City's Department of Homeless Services, where she was the Director of Facility, Planning and Development. Ms. Diller earned a BA in Urban Studies from University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from Columbia Business School.