

Grant Montgomery is the National Director of US Multifamily Analytics at CoStar, with more than 25 years of experience in real estate research and consulting. He most recently led research for Elme Communities, a NYSE-listed multifamily REIT, and previously served as Senior Vice President and Apartment Practice Director at Delta Associates, where he advised clients on multifamily market conditions. He is also a regular speaker on multifamily trends at industry events.