

Since 2012, Heather Boujoulian has brought extensive multifamily development and construction experience to Berkshire Residential. She oversees all development investments for the company and serves as Portfolio Manager for Berkshire's dedicated Senior Housing fund. In these roles she is responsible for all multifamily and senior housing development joint-ventures, overall portfolio construction and performance for the senior housing fund, as well as any construction-related challenges across the Berkshire portfolio. Heather also serves as a member of Berkshire's Investment Committee, Valuation Committee, and Leadership Team.

Across her 27-year career, Heather has held leadership roles in both GP and LP positions and participated in over $5 billion of multifamily investments, encompassing over 15,000 units across the United States. Prior to joining Berkshire, she served as Vice President at Criterion Development Partners where she oversaw all aspects of multifamily development in New England. Prior to that, Heather held several different positions for both the construction and development departments at JPI's Northeast division.

Heather holds a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management from Roger Williams University and a Master in Urban Planning degree from Harvard University's Graduate School of Design. Heather serves on the Multifamily Leadership Board of the National Association of Home Builders and is a member of the National Multifamily Housing Council. She also serves as Chair of the Board of Trustees for Roger Williams University, and is on the Board of Heading Home, a non-profit on a mission to end homelessness in Greater Boston.
