

Richard London

Richard began his legal career in 2001. He possesses expertise in advising on corporate governance and strategic matters, managing contract and operational policies and processes, ensuring corporate compliance with applicable United States laws, negotiating agreements, handling government inquiries, evaluating insurance coverages, developing document retention policies, crafting contract templates, training associates on legal matters, and overseeing complex transactions involving in- and out-of-court restructurings, sales of assets and equity, multiple tranches of financing, and varying forms of consideration. Prior to joining Avenue5, he held roles at Greystar, Perkins Coie LLP, and Vinson and Elkins.
