

Madison Meier serves as the Senior Vice President and Head of Capital Markets for Cardinal Group Investments. Her primary responsibilities include investor relations and capital raising efforts for the firm's investments. She also develops strategies to evolve the company's investment pursuits and creates new products to diversify Cardinal's offerings to the capital markets. Madison joined Cardinal in 2020 with over 15 years of student housing experience. She led a consulting platform in her prior roles, was responsible for business development efforts, and secured new investor relationships for various strategies. Madison earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Kansas State University.