

Monica Willemsen, AIA, is an Associate Principal at SCB, an architecture, planning, urban and interior design firm. As a senior designer in the firm's Campus Environments practice group, Monica has spent her career working with colleges and universities across the country, as well as developer partners, to plan, design, and deliver student residential communities that support each institution's unique vision and educational mission. Monica holds a Master of Architecture from the University of Washington in Seattle and a Bachelor of Arts in Creative Writing from the University of Arizona. She is a LEED Accredited Professional, a PHIUS Certified Consultant (CPHC), and a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA). She currently serves as the Vice President of the Illinois Chapter of the National Organization of Minority Architects (I-NOMA).