

BIO

Paige Mueller is the founder of Eigen10 Advisors which provides real estate consulting services through all stages of the investment cycle from capital formation and property / market analysis to ESG guidance. She previously led North and South America strategy for GIC Real Estate, was part of the LaSalle Investment Management research group, and created a successful pension consulting business. Having worked over decades on both the limited partner and general partner sides of the real estate investment industry, Eigen10 differentiates through its deep analytical roots, cutting through the noise to identify key forward-looking factors that impact investment performance.

Paige has an MBA from Indiana University, has served in leadership in multiple organizations such as ULI, PREA and NCREIF and is a frequent speaker. She is recognized as a Counselor of Real Estate, NCREIF Faculty and Hoyt Fellow. Recent publications can be found on www.eigen10.com.
