

Walt Templin

Walt joined Landmark in 2014 as Head of Investment Management. His responsibilities include forming and implementing portfolio strategies, overseeing asset management and acquisition activities as well as developing and maintaining relationships with institutional investors. Prior to joining Landmark, Walt was a Senior Vice President at Blue Vista Capital Management, LLC, an investment management firm based in Chicago, IL. Walt started his career as a corporate and investment banking analyst at Bank of America Securities, LLC. Walt received a Bachelor of Science from Northwestern University where he majored in Industrial Engineering and Economics.