

Linda Willey serves as Vice President of Business Services for Camden Property Trust, an S&P 400 company. Camden is one of the largest publicly traded multifamily companies in the United States. As of March 31, 2022, Camden Property Trust owned interests in and operated 170 properties containing 58,055 apartment homes across the United States. Camden was recently named by FORTUNE Magazine for the 15th consecutive year as one the "100 Best Companies to Work For" in America, ranking #26.

As Vice President of Business Services, Linda is responsible for the evaluation, negotiation and implementation of ancillary programs including telecommunications, valet trash, and renter's insurance. Additionally, Linda's areas of support include property management systems, policies and procedures, asset management, and Camden's joint venture investment funds.

She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Sam Houston State University. Linda resides outside of Houston, Texas with her husband and they enjoy spending time with their five grandchildren and spending time on Lake Conroe.