

Jane Wu
Principal
Panorama Holdings

Jane Wu is a successful investor as well as an experienced real estate developer. Jane Wu initiated Panorama Holdings, LLC in the United States with business sections spanning over real estate development, investment, finance, consultation, and EB-5 projects. Her company is currently developing several projects with a total of over 3 million square feet in the Greater Charlotte area, including multi-family apartment development, hotel, office space, retail and mixed-use products. Jane Wu also has extensive experience as an investment banker, working at Bank of America, Global Investment Bank as well as Wells Fargo Securities for over five years.

Jane Wu founded and currently serves as the president of North America Chinese Chamber of Commerce (NACCC), a non-profit organization that provides commercial, legal and cultural advice for Chinese enterprises to invest in the U.S. and facilitates Chinese companies in site selection and government incentive negotiation.

Ms. Wu earned her master's in financial engineering from Belk College of Business at UNC Charlotte and currently serves as a member of National American Chinese Association (NACA).