Superior Features

Since there is no equal
This is the Collegiate Marquis of Pombal. The best accommodation for students in Lisbon.
This not only means excellently-designed communal areas, but regular events and fun initiatives – like brewing your own ale or down-time with one of our resident pets. We call it our commitment to community.

And because studying can sometimes feel all-encompassing, we’ve gone to extra measures to ensure there are more – and more friendly – staff always on hand should any problems arise.
“The community is by far the best part about living at aparto. People are so kind and the social atmosphere so great that this place feels like a home away from home.”
