feel different– less programming, smaller events, no Annual Dinner or large networking receptions, etc. – but rest assured, The health and safety of our members remains our top priority. To that end, we will be making some adjustments to comply.

After more than a year apart, NMHC is delighted to announce that we have the green light to go ahead with our in-person 2021 NMHC ANNUAL MEETING. The event will be held at the JW Marriott Denver, April 7-8, 2022.

Last week, NMHC unveiled the 2021 NMHC 50 lists – the industry's authoritative rankings of the nation's leading apartment firms. If you've missed the opportunity to check out the NMHC 50, you'll also want to check out which companies proved to be real movers and shakers during the last year.

WHAT CAN THE U.S. LEARN FROM RENTAL HOUSING MARKETS ACROSS THE GLOBE? Rent control is one of the issues that have ignited the fire across the US. To find out more about this, we talk to Steven Schleifer of Related Companies and Cherry Creek in Denver, CO.

One thing that stands out is that the Revolving Fund is being used to treat homelessness like the national disaster that it has long been.
