NMHC and One11 Advisors released the second edition of the NMHC/One11 Advisors Apartment Industry Technology Benchmarking Report. The report—complimentary to NMHC Members—provides a snapshot of how apartment companies of all sizes are supporting technology and innovation in their companies.

Next week, join industry IT experts for a webinar—The State of Multifamily Technology: Exclusive Member Survey Results—where they explain what challenges and opportunities they face as they deploy technology extensively into company systems.

Inside the report are sections comprised of:

- Survey Respondent Profile
- I.T. Funding
- I.T. Organizational Structure
- I.T. Staffing and Core Functions
- I.T. Outsourcing
- Accounting and Property Management Systems
- Implementing New Technology
- Other Technology Solutions
CODE 53 EPISODE 4: A CONVERSATION WITH DOUG BIBBY

NMHC President Doug Bibby explains the qualities of a leader, the unique challenges he’s faced and how Multifamily has grown during his 21-year tenure as NMHC President in a new episode of Code 53. Join NMHC co-hosts Alison Johnson and Kevin Cameron to hear it all.

SEC CLIMATE PROPOSAL WOULD INCREASE COSTS, LOWER RETURNS

As previously reported, the SEC is moving to require publicly traded companies to make certain climate-related disclosures.

If made final as is... the proposal would increase multifamily operating costs, resulting in higher prices, fewer affordable housing options for renters and lower returns for investors.

What We’re Doing About It: NMHC weighed in with the SEC this week to push back on unreasonable and outright unworkable provisions that would require firms to significantly alter their business operations. We offered five alternative provisions in place of the nonstarters.
