NMHC VP PAULA CINO APPOINTED TO BUILDING CODE COUNCIL

As we commemorate May as National Building Safety Month, NMHC would like to reflect on our commitment to ensuring the safety and soundness of apartment buildings nationwide. We are proud to play an active role in the International Code Council’s (ICC) development of model building codes and standards, and we’re honored that NMHC VP of Construction, Development and Land Use Policy Paula Cino was appointed to represent the industry by serving on the ICC Codes & Standards Council.

NMHC has been a long-time advocate for codes and standards that are not only technologically feasible and cost-effective but also address the unique needs of the multifamily industry. Click to learn more about our involvement in the 2024 ICC Model Code Development process.
